1975-76 Trillium presents "Something to Cheer About"

Something to cheer about . . .

Quite a contrast to popular belief,

but yet at Co-Lin the campus life enhances a more optimistic air.

Yes, my moods are changing . . .

Yet my silent cheering never ceases.

PENTHOUSE

Dirty clothes, too much lather,

Sleeping through class . . . no, not very cheerful,

but, ah, the little pleasures . . .

that special phone call, my favorite magazine,

girlish gibbish — now we cheer.

America's Independence,

Achievement through learning,

Self-satisfaction . . .

Through it all I hear the clapping increasing

While playing, touching, and just being . . .

My feelings are deepening,

bonds are being made,

and my freedom is gleaming.

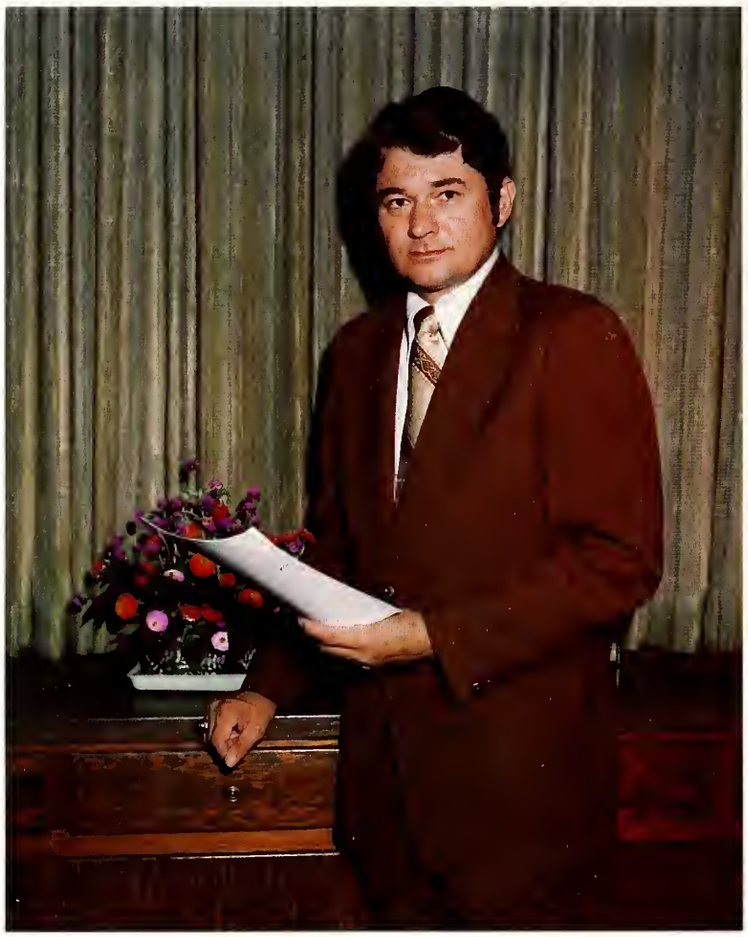
Whether alone

or with friends

I still find myself cheering.

College makes improvements under Thames' leadership



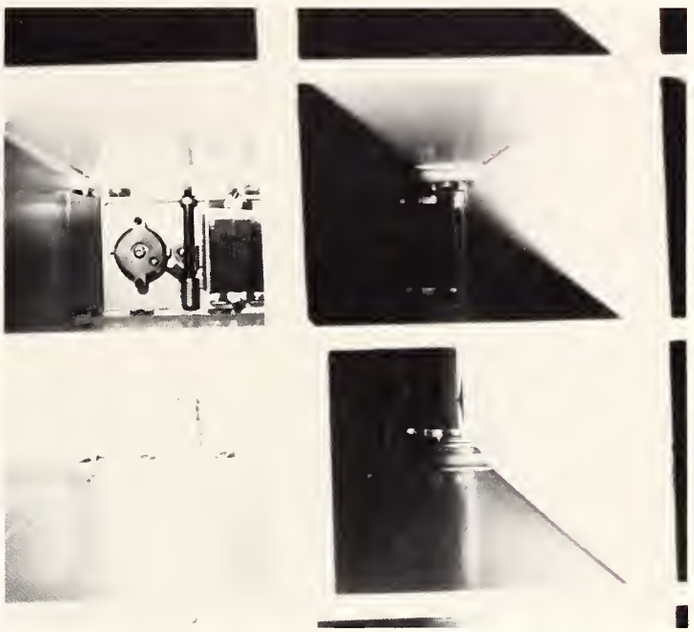
President Billy B. Thames dedicates much of his time to improving Copiah-Lincoln Junior College's Wesson and Natchez campuses.

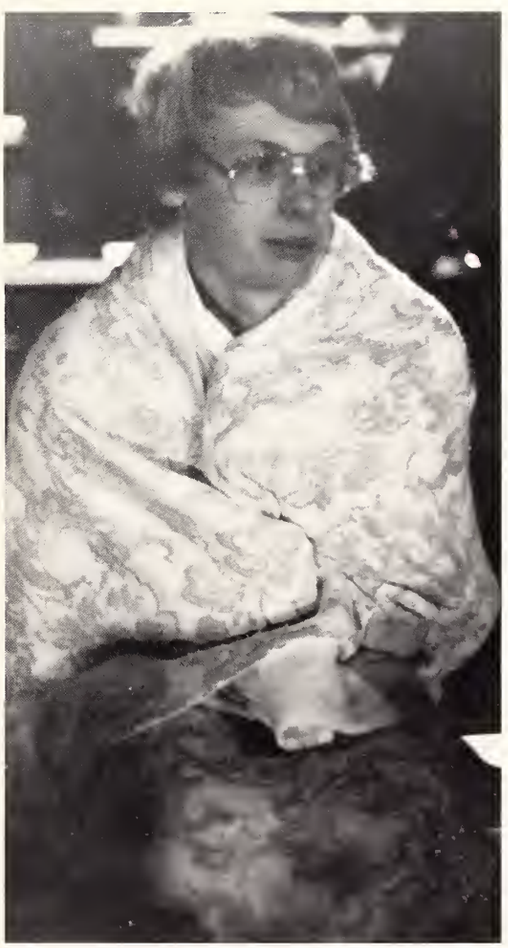
Co-Lin has grown immensely since Dr. Thames became president in January, 1968. The campus has been transformed into one of progress and the Natchez campus has been established. Adult education has expanded and all programs have advanced. More than 4,000 are enrolled in all programs through Copiah-Lincoln.

While a student at Co-Lin, he was elected to the college's first Hall of Fame and was an honor graduate. He continued his education at the University of Southern Mississippi where he received a bachelor of science degree and a master of science degree. He was awarded a doctorate from USM in August, 1974.

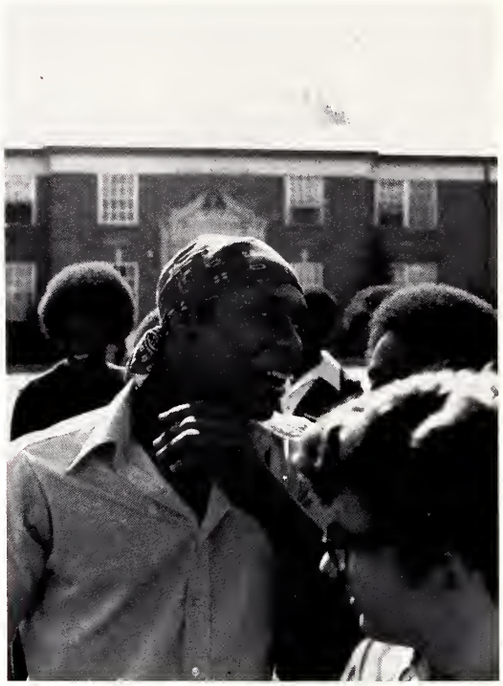
Dr. and Mrs. Thames, the former Anne Allen of Monticello, are the parents of three children, Rachel Lynn, Rebecca Leigh, and William Bass, Jr.

My mind is hazy,
mailbox empty —
but, music and blankets
bind my securities.





The beginning is far away —
my encounters did vary
and my freedom is broadening . . .



Many victories I claim, and though
Shadows were sometimes dark,
The horizon is my limit.
The cheering is unending . . .

Trillium dedication goes to Burlian Walker

THE 1976 COPIAH-LINCOLN TRILLIUM IS DEDICATED TO . . .

. . . a graduate of Copiah-Lincoln and the University of Southern Mississippi, with additional work at the University of Mississippi as a Newspaper Fund Fellow and at the University of Southern Mississippi.

. . . A man who began his teaching profession as an English instructor in his hometown of Magee and then joined the faculty at Copiah-Lincoln in 1967.

. . . one who has given endlessly of his hours and himself as advisor of the TRILLIUM and the WOLF TALES . . . a person who has worked tirelessly directing beauty pageants and Miss Co-Lin pageants . . . the host of the radio program the Co-Lin Report . . . an instructor in journalism and an off campus class in English Composition.

. . . a member of the USM Alumni Association, Copiah-Lincoln Alumni Association, Mississippi Journalism Association, and the Wesson Lions Club.

. . . a person who has been very active in the performing arts as evidenced by his charter membership in the Brookhaven Little Theatre and Co-Lin's Cast of Delta Psi Omega, his direction of and performance in several plays, and his service to the Mississippi Theatre Association as assistant publicity chairman in 1972.

. . . a person who has been selected to Who's Who in America in 1974 for its sectional publication by Marquis, the 1976 edition of Men of Achievement published by the International Biographical Centre in Cambridge, England, and Outstanding Young Men of America in 1972.

. . . one who has served as president of the Copiah-Lincoln Junior College Alumni Association, 1970-71, and as president of the Mississippi Association for Journalism Education, 1973-74.

. . . a man who loves Co-Lin, its students, and fun.

. . . a man whose mind is full of memories of days past which can produce a smile at any given moment. . . . and to a man that possesses the vitality and initiative which promise that his future will be as productive and rewarding as his past.

IT IS WITH PLEASURE AND PRIDE THAT THE 1976 TRILLIUM EXECUTIVE EDITORS DEDICATE THIS YEARBOOK TO . . .

Hall of Fame chooses three sophomores

To be chosen to the Hall of Fame is the highest honor that can be given a Copiah-Lincoln Junior College student.

The 1976 TRILLIUM presents the three graduating sophomores in the twenty-third selection of Co-Lin's Hall of Fame.

Each was nominated in open nominations, approved by a screening committee of his fellow students, recommended by a faculty committee on the basis of character, leadership, and contribution to Copiah-Lincoln. They join 65 other winners, dating back to 1954.

In what could be termed the most unusual year in basketball in a decade, the Co-Lin Wolves became the Mississippi Junior College Championships by blowing Southwest Mississippi Bears out of their own gym, 94-72, in the state finals.

This marked the third time in four years that the Wolves have won the state crown.

In the state semi-finals, the wolves beat Northwest Mississippi 70-69. Seeded third in the south tournament after Utica, posting an identical record won the flip of the coin for second place seeding, the Wolves beat Utica and Jones to advance to the south finals. Here the Wolves beat Southwest for the south crown.

Following the state finals, the Wolves participated in the Region 7 tournament at Motlow State in Tennessee.

Coached by William Lewis and his assistant, Gwyn Young, the Wolves posted a regular 18-6 season. Perhaps the greatest regular season win was over the south's number one giant, Gulf Coast.

Seeded eighth and last in the south tourney, Southwest's Bears surprised the state by becoming the runners-up for the state crown.

Champs advance to Region 7 tournament.

Gwyn Yaung
Wamen's head coach

Posting a regular season of 14-4, the Lady Wolves of Co-Lin became runners-up in the south division tournament to Southwest.

In the state semi-finals, the Lady Wolves bowed to East Central. From the state tourney, the group journeyed to the Region 7 finals in Cleveland, Tennessee. Coached by Gwyn Young, the Lady Wolves posted the best south division record during regular play, but were seeded second in the tournament at SWMJC. Southwest's women, seeded fifth, turned into Cinderellas and whipped upon every other team, including number one Gulf Coast.

After beating the Lady Wolves in the state tournament, East Central's Lady Warriors downed Itawamba, defending state and Region 7 champions, in the finals.

The Lady Wolves were led during the year by Tanya Ponder and Cindy Hodges.

Adult non-credit classes attract hundreds

A wide variety of non-credit adult classes are conducted on both campuses during the school year, with hundreds taking advantage of the offerings.

The vocational-technical division of the college offers such courses as auto mechanics; cake decorating; cabinet making; upholstery; sewing; bricklaying; air conditioning and refrigeration; Programming Cobol and key punch operation; industrial safety; first aid; housewiring; DC Circuits; shorthand; beginning and advanced typing; record keeping; welding; electronics; supervisory training; auto mechanics tune-up; basic drafting; carpentry; machine shop; photography; commercial art; and nurses aid. Off-campus classes included at Fayette in Emergency Medical Training.

Non-credit classes for adults usually meet one night each week for three hours, and usually from three to 16 weeks. A small charge is made to those enrolling in night classes.

Upon completion of each course, a certificate is awarded.

Adults upgrade skills through night classes

Night classes offer new avocations

Workshops, clinics, conventions, meetings

Copiah-Lincoln Junior College, the educational center of the district, hosts many workshops, clinics, conventions, and other general meetings throughout the school year.

Typical of the clinics were the William Lewis Basketball Camp of Champions for men and women. Meetings such as 4-H, Lions Club, Kiwanis Club, and other civic groups were held on campus.

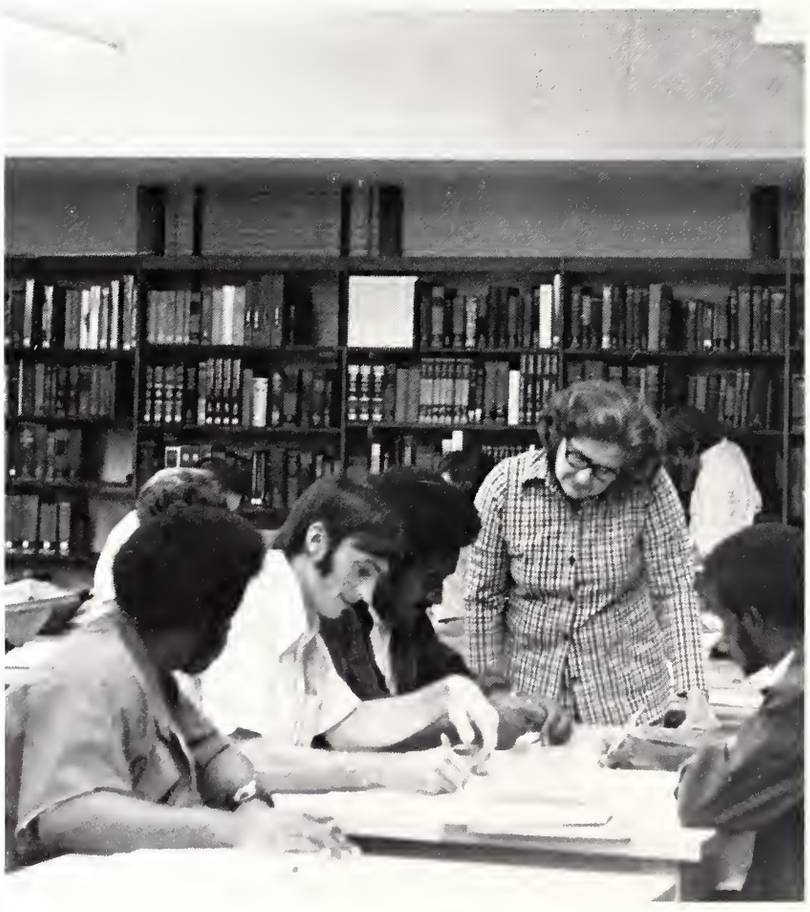
Meetings of all types such as an Alcohol Awareness Workshop attracted several hundred, helping Co-Lin to truly serve its district.

Co-Lin offers credit classes in nine towns

Copiah-Lincoln Junior College offers many classes for credit off-campus during the school year. During the past year classes were taught in Magee, Mendenhall, Crystal Springs, Hazlehurst, Monticello, and Brookhaven by the Wesson campus and in Fayette, Natchez, and Meadville by the Natchez campus. A variety of courses were offered in Brookhaven, either at King's Daughters Hospital or at Eva Harris School.

The Braakhaven faculty included Mrs. Mary Lau Landress, Mrs. Muncie Kimbriel, and Burlian Walker, English; Danny Harrell, Wade Alexander, C. B. Hawkins, and Mike McIntrye, sacial science and ecanamics; Bab Garrett, psychalagy; and Danny Dykes, math. Other aff-campus faculty members included Lewis Weeks, Crystal Springs, accaunting; James Davis, Mendenhall, English; Mrs. Lais Russell and Babby Dan Miller, Manticella, English and accaunting, respectively; Jahn Brawn, Magee, accaunting; and Jim Lightsey, Hazlehurst, sacialagy.

Off-campus English class from Braakhaven visits the Evelyn Oswalt Library an the Wessan campus with Burlian Walker and Mrs. Mary Lau Landress as instructars.



Over 200 enroll in off-campus classes

Over 100 adults enroll in off-campus classes

Jimmy Hux instructs algebra in a Braakhaven aff-campus class.

C. B. Hawkins is instructar in American Histary aff-campus.

Jim Lightsey teaches sociolagy and psychalagy aff-campus in Hazlehurst.

Senior AIDES assist public service agencies

Copiah-Lincoln Junior College is sponsoring agent for the Senior AIDES program. Four years ago, Co-Lin became the only college of any type in the entire nation to have such a program. The program here is only one of two in the state and one of 33 in the nation.

A federally-funded project, sponsored by the National Council of Senior Citizens through the cooperative efforts of the Department of Labor, the program is open to those 55 years of age or over who are unemployed or underemployed.

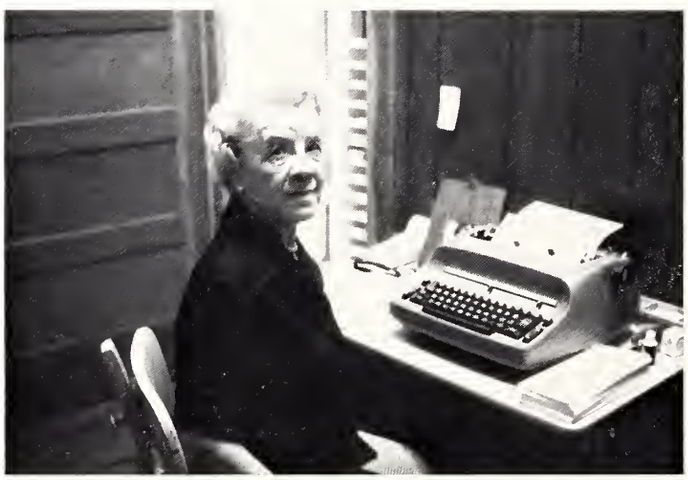
The program encompasses ten Southwest Mississippi counties, including Adams, Amite, Copiah, Franklin, Jefferson, Lawrence, Lincoln, Pike, Walthall, and Wilkinson

Forty Senior Aides are employed by Co-Lin and work on campus, at Southwest Mississippi Junior College, McComb, Tylertown, Woodville, Natchez, Monticello, Bude, Brookhaven, Enterprise, Bogue Chitto, Magnolia, etc.

Presently there are eight aides on campus. Here Aides (top to bottom) Mrs. Hattie Mae Hughes, Mrs. Grace Noble, Mrs. Margaret Tyson, and Mrs. Dolly Britt help students in various ways.

On campus the aides are employed as faculty aides, library aides, administrative aide, and bookstore aide. In towns and cities, aides are employed at hospitals, employment offices, Percy Quin State Park as recreation supervisors; as youth counselors; clerical aides; library aides; guide aides; dispatch aides; and teacher aides.

Edgar W. Martin, director of adult education, is administrator for the program and John Davis is coordinator.



Adult basic education enrolls several hundred

Adult basic education class in Hazlehurst.

Several hundred adults will enroll in Adult Basic Education (ABE) during the 1975-76 year. Over 3,000 persons have taken ABE during the past four years.

ABE is offered to those 16 years of age or older who have not completed high school. Upon completion of three cycles, a student may take the General Educational Development (GED) test, the equivalent of a high school diploma.

Instruction is from grades 0-12. Local teachers serve as instructors with classes meeting locally in ten centers.

Classes are held at Sanatorium, Mendenhall, West Union, Crystal Springs, Hazlehurst, Monticello, Bogue Chitto, Loyd Star, Fayette, and Meadville.

There is no cost to attend ABE classes and materials are furnished free of charge.

ABE students at Voice of Calvary Bible Institute in Mendenhall wrote, directed, and performed an original Christmas play.
